ELECTRIC TECHNOLOGY

Which electric engines is right for you?

MILD HYBRID (MHEV)

A small electric motor that helps improve efficiency versus a conventional internal combustion engine.

Mild Hybrid vehicles have two sources of power that work together – a conventional engine and a battery -driven electric motor. The electric motor does not power the car. It simply assists it.

Kuga mHEV has an auxiliary electric motor and a 48v battery that further improve fuel economy up to 56.5 mpg and lower CO2. They also assist with acceleration transferring back the energy.

HYBRID (FHEV)

Hybrid vehicles have two sources of power.

They can automatically switch between conventional mode, pure electric mode (for short distances) or use both to power the vehicle as needed.

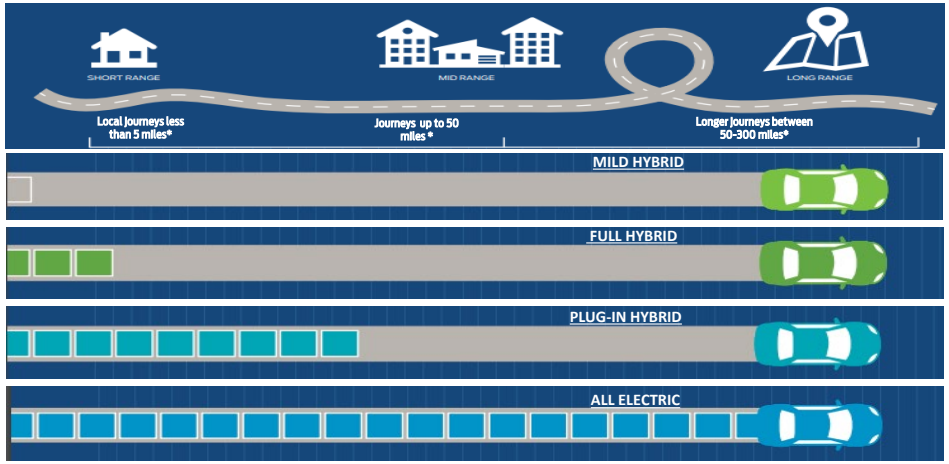

Kuga FHEV has a battery capacity of 1.1kW which allows short term electric propulsion, a great combination between power and fuel efficiency, whilst reducing the CO2 footprint compared to a conventional engine.

PLUG-IN HYBRID (PHEV)

Plug In. Charge up. Improves Efficiency versus a mild hybrid or hybrid engine.

Plug-in Hybrids have the two sources of power like a hybrid, but with a larger high voltage battery, enabling you to drive longer distances on all-electric power.

Kuga PHEV has a battery size of 14.4 kWh which gives a maximum EV range of 39 miles. This results in a combined average fuel economy up to 282.5 mpg and only 23 g/km CO2.

* Ranges are estimates only and depend on the vehicle, road conditions and driving behaviour.

 Please see the Fuel Consumption and CO2 data available in this Pricelist

Charging the battery

MILD HYBRID AND HYBRID

There's no need to plug in your vehicle for charging. Hybrid vehicles are able to recharge the battery in two ways:

1) Regenerative braking
2) Conventional engine

The conventional engine powers the generator which transforms mechanical energy into electrical energy to charge the battery.

PLUG-IN HYBRID

The larger battery in Plug-in Hybrids can be plugged-in to charge. Once the battery is depleted, the vehicle behaves like a conventional hybrid with the engine running when required.

Plug in charging options

230V Wall outlet

Plug-in Hybrids and All-Electric vehicles can be charged on a 230V outlet (16A), which is the standard electrical socket in most UK households. This takes approximately 6 hours to charge the battery.

Wall box

For faster charging at home you can install a compatible wall box, which is capable of charging your vehicle in approximately 3.5 hours.

PHEV Home Wall box

Fully installed EV Box 400V (32A) is available as an accessory.

Public charging stations

Public charging stations, available in many cities and work places. The price and charging capability vary.

All four electric vehicle types use regenerative braking to charge the battery. While braking, the motor is still spinning even though the car is trying to slow down.

Regenerative braking captures this typically wasted energy to create electricity, which charges the battery.

FUEL CONSUMPTION

The test used to establish fuel consumption and CO2 figures has changed to deliver results that are more representative of real driving. The Worldwide Harmonised Light Vehicle Tes new WLTP test.

This will produce more accurate figures which most likely will be greater than those arrived at using the NEDC test. Please be mindful of this in making comparisons between vehicles and where applicable motor tax is now based on these WLTP figures from 1st January 2021. Understanding fuel data; The table below shows the fuel consumption (WLTP) and CO2 accessories). Adding options or accessories to your chosen vehicle can Impact WLTP fuels consumption and CO2 emissions. Please speak to your Ford Dealer for more information.

You can also use Ford's online configurator to build and customise a new Ford vehicle: www.ford.ie/configurator . The configurator provides information about your configured vehicl
